Making Spirituality Real for the Real World

Yes, thank you, I'd love to speak at your event.

If you're about: Consciousness + know that Relationship Rules, Ready to hit the Reset Button on how Business gets done & Honor the Power of Truth, Beauty and Wisdom; then we'd be great together.

I give great content.

I speak at conferences, business events, and at personal growth events. As a keynote speaker, I also offer breakout sessions for your conference event. Browse the topic sheet for more information.

It's all about depth of content (no fluff here), giving people real world answers they can apply right now and having some fun while we dive in the deep end of the pool.

Wouldn't it be a relief to hand over your speaker needs and know it's taken care of? Done!

Let's talk about your needs. Call me 650-346-3581.

Speaking Topics

Love, Never Go to Work Without It

What's the point, right? Work without connection is, well just, work. Connection inspires, binds us and ups the loyalty quotient. People who experience passion and connection with others love what they do more and that hits the bottom line at every angle. Let me take the terror out of the L word and show you what love looks like on the job. Love does sustainability in a way team building never will. It's a new world and it requires a new approach to business. Love is the context for creativity and innovation.

Seven Sacred Words to Revolutionize Your World

What if I were to tell you there is a simple process by which you will experience more connection and depth with others. It's an intentional process in which you connect to your deepest wisdom, inner cosmology, and elevate your consciousness. Would you believe me? You should. This is high energy language that re-contextualizes your relationship to everything! Change your words, transform your mind, evolve your experiences and your relationships. Learn the words that write a new story, ones that create a cool and powerful context. You know what you say matters. Now experience the power and impact of resonance being spoken within you.

Move Over Maslow

Women are Breaking from Hierarchy

Maslow's hierarchy of needs tells us that we have to take care of our individual needs before we self-actualize, yet evidence, from organizations such as Grameen bank or Best Buy Wolfe that tell an updated story about how women hit the reset button. Women are leading us into a new vision for how to get it done. Women are creating community while they create profit. They know that basic individual needs and the community's needs are often the same. Research shows that when life gets tough, women don't do flight or fight. Instead, they sit down over coffee and work it out. In the world of the feminine, relationship rules!

"I heard Melanie at the International Coach Federation. The room was packed and overflowing! Her work is powerful yet easily understood and implemented. I recommend her highly. I purchased her CD on boundaries. Definitely worth getting. I am very impressed."
Edith Sieg, Executive Coach

"You rock!!! I can't remember when a speaker resonated more down to earth, truthful, grace-filled & funny. Your reverence for words was simply inspiring. Your reverence for life was refreshing."
Marilyn Abedin, Borel Financial, Inc

"Within minutes of listening to Melanie, I knew I wanted more. She emanates soulfulness, gifting us with new ways of seeing the world so that we can lead more centered, peaceful lives. You won't want to miss a word from this wise woman."

Pam Coffey, Environmental Protection Agency
